Conway Township Public Notice Township Cemetery Fall Clean-up

As a reminder, all items placed at the graves in all five of the Township Cemeteries per the ordinance were to be removed by October 1. Anything besides the permanent monument will be removed during fall clean-up. All items left at the gravesite will be removed. Grave blankets are allowed to be placed between November 1 and April 1. At that time, they need to be removed. No seasonal items may be placed until after May 1, according to the guidelines in the ordinance. Copies of the ordinance are available on the township website and in person at the township hall during regular business hours. The support of families who observe the cemetery rules is greatly appreciated.
